

Biographical Information

Tyler Durman

Tyler Durman lives in Laguna Beach, California, and is best known for his ability to offer wisdom through laughter and storytelling. As an author and speaker, his live presentations reach more than 250,000 people each year, on a large number of topics. His style is so diverse that he is equally sought after to present before audiences of teenagers and audiences of adults.

He has spoken at over 7800 schools, conferences and events, and to more than five million teenagers. This has given him the unique opportunity to be invited behind the scenes and into the lives of young people, in hundreds of one-on-one conversations. As a result he understands their world to a depth that most adults rarely see.

He is a father, was born in Africa, and has lived much of his life in Hawaii. He is a terrible dancer who loves to surf, and is so entertaining that he has been featured at Universal Studios in Hollywood and on network television. He is booked annually as the keynote speaker for leadership conferences, community, parenting and corporate events, and for middle and high school assemblies.

He is the author of Birthday Suit, a collection of short stories that will be available wherever books are sold in the spring of 2012.

He has a Masters Degree with an emphasis in Counseling, loves life, and will help you look honestly into your own heart, while keeping a smile on your face.
